Odd Socks Day - Anti-Bullying Week – 16th November

Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of Anti-Bullying Week, we will be taking part in Odd Socks Day on 16th November 2026.

Odd Socks Day is an opportunity for children and adults to celebrate what makes us all unique. By wearing odd socks, we are sending an important message that we are all different, and that differences should be respected, valued, and celebrated.

The day helps to promote the key themes of Anti-Bullying Week, encouraging kindness, respect, and inclusion within our school community. Through discussions and activities, children will learn about the importance of accepting others, standing up against bullying, and creating a culture where everyone feels safe, valued, and supported.

We invite all children to come to school wearing odd socks with their normal school uniform. There is no cost to take part, just a willingness to celebrate individuality and support this important cause.

We look forward to seeing a wonderful display of colourful, mismatched socks and thank you for your continued support.

Yours Sincerely

Louise Jones
